Fabulous 1890's Weekend

The Fabulous 1890's Weekend revolves around the world's first night football game, played by Mansfield University in Smythe Park on September 28, 1892. From the first Fabulous 1890s Weekend to this year's event, the goal has been to create a historically accurate, family-oriented weekend celebrating the last and most colorful decade of the 19th century. The weekend culminates with the re-enactment football game and fireworks.
